I've received your 20 October letter, with enclosures, applying for our staff historian's position announced in Perspectives.

It was good to talk to you on 19 October, and I'm glad to know of your interest in this opening. We are now working on a short list of candidates, and I should be able to let you know how your application stands within a week or two.

With all good wishes,

Yours sincerely,

STAT

J. Kenneth McDonald
Chief Historian
